This is a confidential evaluation. We would appreciate a serious and honest reaction to the various aspects of the course listed below.

1. What is your assessment of the readings used in this course? Are there any which you found particularly useful (or useless)?

Amazing. The articles are all very interesting. If he ~~wasn't~~ hadn't assigned those articles it would take me forever to find them online/at the library.

2. What about the class meetings did you find interesting? Was there enough discussion? Were the lectures any good? Was the material handled properly?

Mr. Bowersox is ~~am~~ ~~am~~ doing a really good job teaching.

He makes the class sound so interesting. He is very great at organizing the class and getting everyone to learn and participate.

3. In general, what were your expectations about this course before you took it? Were those expectations realized?

I expected to be very challenged and I expected to regret picking a 400 level research and writing class. I am very pleased by the outcome. I have learned more than I ever imagined (he knows so much!). I have been very challenged (yet in a good way!) (OVER)

I wish I knew there are such great profs.

- 4 a. What part of the course should have received more attention, been given more time? What parts interested you the most?

I think everything was organized perfectly.

- 4 b. What parts of the course should have received less attention? What parts interested you the least?

//

5. How would you rate this course, in terms of general interest to you? high; high-to-moderate; moderate; moderate-to-low; low. Why do you rate it this way?

~~moderate to low~~ high!

I wasn't too interested when I enrolled but now I am very interested

6. (If you haven't already answered this) How do you think this course might be improved? Any general comments or complaints?

PS: Mr. Bowersox is the best professor I had in my entire life!
